

Reducing Avoidable Harm in Care Homes Workshop, The Life Centre, Sale 21st November 2018, 10.00am – 2.00pm

Timings	Session	Presenter
10.00am - 10.05am	Welcome	Jay Hamilton – Associate Director & GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative Lead
10.05am – 10.10am	Ice breaker	Tazeem Shah - Project Manager, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
10.10am – 10.20am	‘Getting to know you’	Joanna Casby - Project Support, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative Patient Safety Collaborative
10.20am – 10.30am	Setting the scene	Jay Hamilton – Associate Director & GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative Lead
10.30am – 10.50am	Interactive Patient Story	Eva Bedford - Deterioration Programme Lead, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
COFFEE BREAK (10mins)
11.00am – 11.20am	What do we mean by ‘Avoidable Harm’?	Eva Bedford - Deterioration Programme Lead, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
11.20am – 11.40am	What types of ‘Avoidable Harm’ impact residents in care homes?	Tazeem Shah - Project Manager, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
11.40am – 12.10pm	‘Avoidable Harm’ – College for Improvement	Tazeem Shah - Project Manager, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
12.10pm – 12.25pm	Learning from others	James Chapman - Chief Operating Officer, Safe Steps Lesley Lawson – UK National Sales Manager, Bruin Biometrics Liz Kanwar - AQ Programme Manager, AQuA
12.25am – 12.35pm	Learning from others – North West Coastal	Jen Gilroy-Cheetham - Programme Manager, Patient Safety Collaborative, NW Coastal Innovation Agency
12.35pm – 12.50pm	Show and Tell – Examples of good practice in your care home?	Eva Bedford - Deterioration Programme Lead, GMEC Patient Safety Collaborative
12.50pm – 1.10pm	Next steps	Jay Hamilton – Associate Director & Patient Safety Collaborative Lead
1.10pm – 2.00pm	Networking Lunch and Innovations marketplace	